Public Bathing House.

THE Proprietors of THE PITTSBURGH STEAM MILL BATHING HOUSE, hereby inform the Public, that the capacity of the reservoirs for that establishment is doubled, and so arranged that the cold and warm waters are perfectly seperated. The public will in future meet with the disappointments consequent on the former arrangement.

The cost of this establishment, has been considerable, and the Proprietors are sorry to say the proceeds arising from it are not sufficient to warrant the opening of it another season under the present limited patronage. It is however hoped that the new arrangement alluded to, together with a more extended knowledge of the great benefit arising from the use of Baths, in a place as this, will in a short time, procure more liberal encouragement.

The price of BATHING is 25 Cents. The House will be open from 5 in the morning till 9 at night.

PITTSBURGH Manhattan School,

FOR
YOUNG LADIES & GENTLEMEN

MR. LOOMIS, respectfully returns thanks to his patrons for their liberal patronage since the commencement of his School in this place, and informs them and the public that he continues to teach both sexes Reading, Penmanship analytically, English Grammar, English Composition, Geography, with the use of the Globes and Maps, Drawing of Maps, Book-keeping, the Languages, &c.

The system of Education adopted in this School, will be that which is pursued in the celebrated Manhattan School, in the city of New-York, conducted by Mr. A. Picket, its successful founder; and which is acknowledged by men of the first literary reputation to be one of the best conducted Schools, in that city or in the United States. Here, about five hundred children of both sexes, comprising some of the best families in the city, constantly attend and are taught in such a manner as does the greatest honor to the teacher, and results in the happiest consequence to the pupils. It is of the utmost importance to teach children in such a manner that they will understand what they learn, and know how to apply it to the active pursuits of life. To give them words without accustoming them to attach some definite meaning to them, is, like blindfolding a man and commanding him to find a certain object; every effort leads him astray and renders him more uncertain of its attainment, so children if their minds are burdened with knowledge without understanding, find themselves disinterested in the pursuit, of course their progress in acquiring it will be but small: they must be brought to love learning if we would expect ever to teach them to good purpose, for the mind always eagerly embraces that which it previously loves.

In this School every requisite attention will be paid to the learning and amiable deportment of the pupils, and no labour will be thought too arduous to form the young mind for future usefulness and respectability in society. The education of youth is difficult and requires unwearied attention and experience, for no man is born a teacher, it is an occupation which requires many years practice to become a proficient in the business. To his many years experience in teaching an extensive School and unwearied diligence, the subscriber looks for public patronage, pledging himself to a conscientious discharge of the duties incumbent on a teacher, he with confidence solicits the patronage of the public.

For terms of Tuition, References, &c. please to apply at the School Room, over Mr THOMAS ALLEN'S Store, Market Street

N. B. Young Ladies will be taught plain and ornamental Needle Work, in a separate apartment, by Mrs. Loomis.

Morning Tuition will commence on the 1st of May, for Penmanship, from 6 to 8 o'clock, at Six Dollars a quarter, payable in advance

P. S. On hand and constantly for Sale, ENGLISH QUILLS of the best quality, wholesale and retail.

STEAM ENGINE FACTORY,

for furnishing Steam Engines on Oliver Evans's construction, which daily experience is proving to be the cheapest and most powerful.

AN AIR FOUNDERY,

on an extensive scale, capable of furnishing castings of any description, but particularly adapted to machinery.

AN ANVIL AND ANCHOR FACTORY, capable of furnishing anvils and anchors of the largest size.

A BRASS FOUNDERY,

calculated for general castings, but particularly for machinery and large bells, which will be warranted of the first quality.

A BUTT-HINGE FACTORY,

will also shortly be in operation, on a scale sufficiently large to supply any demand. It is also intended to supply small castings annealed.

A PATTERN MAKER'S SHOP, AND A BORING AND TURNERS SHOP.

The lathes are driven by the force of steam; and all orders in the different branches of turning Iron, Brass, Wood, &c. will be executed with dispatch.

They also carry on the business of SCREW MAKING,

and are prepared to furnish Rolling and Slitting Mill, Paper Mill, Fullers, Tobacco and Millstone Screws, &c.

The Pittsburgh Steam Engine Company flatter themselves that the nature and extent of their establishment, will enable them to furnish any article in the mechanical line particularly, on as short and as favorable terms as any establishment in the state.

They have on hand a STEAM ENGINE, sufficiently powerful to grind from 20 to 25 bushels of Wheat per hour, in the best manner. Also, a number of Paper Mill, Fullers, and Mill Screws, and Sugar Mill apparatus.

Murder of Miss Hamilton.

The tragical death of this young lady, and the almost unprecedented barbarity attending the horrid affair, has necessarily excited great interest in the publick mind. To gratify the publick inquisitiveness, I give the substance of the trial of the supposed murderers, which took place on Friday last at a court of Oyer and Terminer, held at Catskill in the county of Greene, before Mr. Justice Platt.

Two persons, Patrick Cavenah, and —— Allen, Irishmen by birth, who were soldiers in the late war, were indicted for the murder of this young lady. Cavenah only was tried; and being acquitted, Allen was discharged, without the formality of a trial.

GREENE OYER AND TERMINER

The people. } vs
Patrick Cavenah. }

Van Buren, Attorney General, for the People.

Williams for the Prisoner.

The first fact proper to be ascertained in the course of the trial was, in what manner the deceased lost her life; whether she designedly or accidentally fell into the creek where the dead body was found floating; or, whether she was murdered and thrown into it. The result of testimony on this point, was such as to leave no possible doubt that she was in fact murdered and thrown into the creek. It appeared to the court that the horrid event took place some time after nine o'clock, on the evening of the 22d of August, 1813, and that the body, mangled in the most shocking manner, was found on the Saturday following, about four o'clock in the afternoon. The facts being ascertained to the satisfaction of the court, the next question was, by whom was she murdered.

Major Walworth and Capt. Cuyler, were called for the purpose of convicting Cavenah, the prisoner arraigned, of being one of the perpetrators.

Maj. Walworth testified, That on the 12th of January 1814, he took the command of Fort Gansevoort, near New York—that the prisoner was then there. About a week after his arrival, while sitting in his room about 8 or nine o'clock in the evening, prisoner came to him with a roll of paper in his hand and with a stare of wildness or horrour—inquiring for Lieut. now Capt. Cuyler, observing that he had something of importance to communicate to him. Being informed that Lieut. Cuyler, was not within, he said he would communicate it to the witness, and proceeded as follows: "A great murder had been committed—he was knowing to it—said it was the murder of Miss Hamilton, up the North river—at the time the murder was committed, he was up the river—was one of a party of Irishmen who had left Philadelphia for Albany or Troy—said witnes could find the whole history in a paper which he then handed witness!"—Witness then interrogated him—he started, and said that the President and Heads of Departments would be murdered—that there was a party formed to murder them—that Thomas A. Emmet was one to be murdered—and went on in this unintelligible manner till witness ordered him out of the room—soon after which, Lieut. Cuyler came in, and he and witness examined the papers—witness sent word to Mr. Hamilton (father of the deceased) who within 8 or 10 days arrived there—witness then examined the prisoner, who stated that he left Philadelphia after the 1st of July, with a number of Irishmen, to go to Albany, Waterford, or Troy to get work—but finding none, they descended the river to Athens—they subsisted by going ashore and plundering occasionally, as they went down the river—that they then went up the creek at Athens and landed—that he and two others of the party went to plunder something to eat—that the others went another way—that while in the village of Athens they came across the young lady near a corner of the street—that they seized her, dragged her along and bound her mouth, and for fear she might return too soon, they concluded to murder her—that they struck her over the head with sticks, clubs and stones, and thought one of them stabbed her—after they had killed her they consulted what to do with her—some one of them stepped up and stamped his heel just under her breast and arm, which stopped her struggling—they then dragged her to the bridge, pulled up a plank and chucked her through—then proceeded down the river in their boat to the Jersey shore near New-York, where they separated, some going to Philadelphia, some to N. York, and one to New-Jersey. Witness then asked him if he was one who committed the murder? At this he started and then went over the same story of the head of departments, including T. A. Emmet as before he had done. Of this the witness apprised Mr. Hamilton, who had him (the prisoner) taken to the Bridewell at New-York, where he remained about a week, and then was returned to witness by the police officers—the prisoner was for some time under the command of the witness, who never discovered any evidence of insanity in the prisoner, except what he manifested in the above relation.

Ralph B. Cuyler, testified, that about the last of November, 1814, he took the command of Fort Gansevoort—that having directed the prisoner to shovel away the snow, he desired to communicate something to him which he the witness would not hear, but ordered the prisoner to work—shortly after (it appears from Mr. Williams's notes with which he has politely furnished me) the prisoner told witness he was born in Ireland—came to Philadelphia where he got among bad characters, and lived by plundering—that he came on with a number more to New-York, where they stole a boat and proceeded up the river as has been before stated—that being landed at Athens they met Miss Hamilton in the street, and had to do with her (as the expression was) and knocked her in the head—as they were going off, they observed that she was not yet dead, but sitting up—when one of them went back and stamped his foot in her side and threw her into the brook—Thomas Jefferson, Madison, Gen. Lincoln, and Gen. Dearborn were with them (as he said) they then proceeded down the river to New-York, and then he the prisoner enlisted.—Witness kept prisoner for some time—never discovered any marks of insanity except when conversing upon this subject. [The reader will observe, that this relation differs from the others in the following particulars only: it does not state that they found the lady at the corner of the streets; nor that they bound her mouth with a handkerchief; nor that they left their boat on the Jersey shore; but states that they stole their boat at New-York instead of Troy, as stated in the other confession, and introduces the names of Messrs. Jefferson, Madison, &c. as accomplices.]

An attempt was then made on the part of the people, to prove that Cavenah was in Athens the evening murder was perpetrated; but this could not be proved—nor could it be proved he was up the river about that time except by one witness, an innkeeper in Hudson, who testified positively that the prisoner came to his house the same night about 11 o'clock, staid a few moments and did not sit down, and that when he, the witness, saw him in Catskill Gaol, about a year afterwards he recognised him as being the same man—Mr. Williams then, of counsel for the prisoner, observed to the court, that there was not sufficient testimony adduced on the part of the people to render it necessary that the prisoner should be put upon his defence. The court replied that they did not think themselves authorized to take the indictment from the jury and acquit the prisoner themselves; adding, that if the Attorney General thought proper to withdraw the prosecution without attempting to urge a conviction, they would readily acquiesce. The Attorney General thought the testimony insufficient to warrant the jury in convicting the prisoner, and the court directed the jury to acquit the prisoner, which they did of course without leaving their seats.

As the prisoner has been acquitted by a jury appointed to try the case, perhaps it would not be prudent or proper for us to express our opinion upon the subject. The prisoner is doubtless in a state of partial derangement. This appears not only from the manner of the confessions he has made, but also from the conversation he has had with various persons, not called upon as witnesses in this cause. At one time he has declared that he entered into the service, for the purpose of being shot; at another that he committed the murder in imitation of his superiours, who directed and assisted in the murder of Gen. Lingan; and at another that about a fortnight before the murder of Miss Hamliton, he and Mr. Jefferson and Mr. Madison had murdered three persons in North Carolina—this he said was the prettiest affair he had been engaged in. and went on to give particulars as minutely as in the affair of Miss Hamilton. The most surprising circumstance, and the most difficult to be reconciled, is the precision with which in his confessions, he has described every circumstance which took place at the murder of Miss Hamilton. Every particular in his confessions at New York, agrees perfectly with the examination of the body at the Coroner's Inquest. The case is no less important than singular, and for myself, it is impossible to form a satisfactory opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the prisoner.

"Vengeance divine, to punish sin moves slow;
"The slower is its pace, the surer is its blow."

The time may come, and I ardently pray it may come soon, when the villains will be detected, and brought to that exemplary punishment which the enormity of their crime renders so justly their due.

REPORTED NOTE OF LOUIS XVIII.

From the Democratic Press.

Just as our paper was going to press, we were favored with the following very important note of Prince Talleyrand to the Ministers of the allied powers.

The note in French, was received by a respectable merchant of this city, enclosed in a letter from his correspondent at Rochelle, dated August 19th, by the schr. Selby, from Nantz. The gentleman at Rochelle, received the note of prince Talleyrand from the prefect of his department, who told him that it had been sent in a circular form to all the prefects in France.

At the bottom of the enclosed note is a memorandum to this effect:

"A favourable answer has just been received from the allied powers." This memorandum probably relates to the point of time at which the gentleman's letter is dated, August 10.

Translated for the Democratic Press.

Note delivered by prince Talleyrand to the ministers of the allied powers.

"The conduct of the allied armies will soon reduce my people to the necessity of arming against them as has been done in Spain. Were I younger, I would put myself at their head, but if age and my infirmities prevent me from doing it, I will not at any rate co-operate in the calamities under which they groan, and if I cannot mitigate them I am determined to ask an asylum of the king of Spain.

"Let those who, even after the capture of the Man, against whom alone they had declared war, continue to treat my people as enemies, and consequently me as such, attempt my liberty if they think proper; they are the masters; I prefer living in a prison to remaining here a passive spectator of the sufferings of my children."

[The London Courier of Aug. 7, contains the same Note, copied from another London paper, the editor of which said he received it from a respectable correspondent at Paris, who had good means of information. The Courier made no comments.—Boston Palladium.]

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Bordeaux to his friend in New York, dated August 30.

The state of France at this moment is distressing and degrading in the extreme—overrun by a band of foreign troops, composed of almost every nation in Europe, paid, fed and clothed by forced contributions, and their leaders manifesting a disposition to reduce her to the conditions of a province; the inhabitants even of this section of the country, (who have always been enthusiastically attached to the Bourbons) begin to look upon those allies, who, on their entrance into France, they hailed as deliverers, as their most dreaded enemies; and from what I can observe, I feel pretty well assured, unless a change of conduct in their conquerers takes place, will make some desperate effort to throw off the yoke in the course of a few months.

New York, October 9.

Late from France.

By the arrival this morning of the schr. Spartan, capt. Davis, from Bordeaux, we have received Paris papers to August 28. From these papers we have made interesting translations. Amongst them will be found Bonaparte's protest against his being sent to St: Helena.

Bordeaux, aug. 31.

The last advices from Paris are of a very gloomy nature. It is said the allied Powers have declared, that their armies shall not leave France, until the whole of the seditious faction be annihilated; they declare that it is necessary for the safety of the King, and the tranquility of Europe, that every traitor be punished. This declaration has created great consternation in the capital.

On the other side, we received this morning, confirmation, that the fortifications of Bayonne have been taken possession of by 20,000 Spaniards, who entered the city with the white flag. The general opinion now is, that the allies will remain in France, until by their contributions, requisitions, &c. they have so weakened her, as to reduce her to complete impotence, to do any mischief for a long time to come.

Paris, aug. 24.

It is asserted that the allied sovereigns will quit Paris in the beginning of October. The Emperor of Austria will depart sooner, and will go to Milan by way of Dijon and Lyons.

BONAPARTE.

London, aug. 21.

Translation of the protest presented by Bonaparte to lord Keith, against his transportation to St: Helena: our readers may rely on its authenticity:

PROTEST.

"I protest solemnly in the face of Heaven and men, against the violation of my most sacred rights by the forcible disposal of person and my liberty. I came freely on board the Bellerophon; I am not the prisoner, I am the guest of England.

Once seated on board the Bellerophon I was immediately entitled to the hospitality, (Je fus sur le foyer) of the British people. If the government by giving orders to the captain of the Bellerophon to receive me and my suite intended merely to lay a snare for me, it has forfeited its honor and sullied its flag.

If this act be consummated, it will be in vain that the English will talk to Europe of their integrity, of their laws, of their liberty, The British faith will be lost in the hospitality of the Bellerophon.

I appeal therefore to history; it will say that an enemy who made war for 20 years on the people of England, came freely in his misfortune to seek an asylum under its laws. What more striking proof could he give of his esteem and of his confidence? But how did they answer it in England? They pretended to hold out an hospitable hand to this enemy, and when he surrendered himself to them in good faith, they sacrificed him.

NAPOLEON.

On board the Bellerophon at sea, August 4, 1815.

London, aug. 13.

The French papers contain all the necessary decrees, orders, &c. for the reduction of the old, and establishment of a new French army. This operation, it is expected, will completely purge the military of all Bonapartean influence.

With a view to secure the possession of Canada, in case of a rupture with the U. States, the government has given orders to build upon the the lakes new ships of war and gun vessels proper for the navigation of those waters. Every thing is preparing in England for the arming and equipping those vessels.

London, aug. 19.

The naval establishment has been ordered to be reduced to 12000 sailors and 5000 marines. 12 ships of the line will remain in commission as guard ships. Only one ship of the line will remain in India. Vessels of 50 guns will carry the flags of the commanders of stations.

200 vessels of war have been ordered to be dismantled.

London, aug. 23.

We guarantee the authenticity of the following, extracted from the conversation which lord Littleton and Mr. Lowther, have had with Bonaparte, on board the Northumberland:

When remonstrating against his detention, he said, "you do not know my character; you ought to have placed confidence in my word of honor."

One of the gentlemen replied, "permit me to say to you, that since the invasion of Spain, there is not an individual in England who would not distrust you and your most solemn engagements."

"I was, (replied Bonaparte) invited into Spain by its sovereign."

"But not to place your brother, Joseph Bonaparte, on the throne," replied the gentleman.

Bon.—I had a great political system. It was necessary to establish a counterpoise to your maritime power; and besides, I only did what the Bourbons had before done.

You must however confess, M. General, that France, under your sceptre, was much more to be feared, than France, as it was during the last years of the reign of LOUIS XIV. aggrandized as it was then.

Bon.—England on its side, was become much more powerful.

He spoke afterwards of our colonies and acquisitions in India.

Bon.—I would have regenerated Spain and done many of those things, which the cortes have since attempted to do. After a pause he said, "well, I have then deceived myself in counting upon your generosity; replace me or send me back to the position from which you took me." When speaking of the invasion of France, "I was," said he, "a sovereign at that time: I had the right to make war." He said in detaining him, as we had done, we had acted like a petty aristocratical power, and not like a great state or a great people.

He said of Mr. Fox, "I knew him, I saw him at the Thuilleries, he had no prejudices."

Mr. Fox, M. General, was a zealous citizen of his country, and moreover, a citizen of the world.

He sincerely wished for peace, replied Bonaparte, and I wished for it likewise; his death prevented a peace from being made. The other negociators were not sincere.

Bonaparte added again, "I do not say that during 20 years of war I did not conspire the ruin of England," then recollecting himself, as though he had inadvertantly said more than prudence justified, added, "I mean its humiliation; I wished to compel you to be just towards me."

He appeared neither agitated nor depressed. His expressions, sometimes energetic, were always uttered with calmness, and he gesticulated much less than Frenchmen or Italians are accustomed to do.

NEW LONDON, October 4.

NAVY ARSENAL.

Captain Evans of the navy has by order of the government taken an accurate survey of this river, harbor and coast adjacent, with a view to the establishment of a Navy Arsenal. The captain expressed himself much pleased with the numerous facilities which this port offered for the object in view, and it is understood his report will be favorable. It is found that 27 feet of water may be carried 6 miles above the city: Should an Arsenal be established in this river, it will of course be in the neighborhood of Gale's Ferry, and Comstock's point.

Phenomena of the Tempest: The brooks which run through this place continue to be brackish; some wells in the country which afforded excellent water have become brackish; it is stated by persons of veracity, that several wells in this place which had plenty of water previous, were nearly dry while the tempest raged.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1815.

In our last, we stated that the Candidates of the Democratic Ticket, were elected—that has been fully confirmed.—William Courtney, William Cochran, Archibald Coon, and Andrew Christy, are the choice of the people of Alleheny and Butler counties, to represent them in the next Legislature—Robert Hlands, Commissioner; William Leckey, Coroner, and Silas Engles, Auditor, of Allegheny county.

The Federalists had no Candidate for the Senate. The Senatorial District consists of Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver and Butler counties.—Samuel Power is elected to represent this district in the Senate, by a very large majority over Ephraim Pentland, the opposing democratic candidate.

Had the Federalists here been as zealous and industrious, in supporting their candidates, as the Federalists were in the city of Philadelphia, complete success would have been the result.

In Westmoreland district and county, John Reed, is elected Senator, and George Plumer, Henry Aishouse, and Peter Wallace, are elected to the Assembly.

In Washington county there was no opposition to Gen. James Stevenson, Thomas Morgan, Gen. John Hamilton, and William Vance, as Members of Assembly.

In the city of Philadelphia, the Federalists turned out with zeal and industry, indicative of their love of country, and have succeeded in carrying all their Candidates, by large majorities—Congress, John Sergeant.—Senator, Henry R. Morgan.—Assembly, Thomas M'Ellen, John Read, John M. Scott, Thomas Ritter, and John Hallowell.

The Maryland General Election was held on the first Monday of the present month. It has terminated in the election of 48 Federalists and 32 democratic members of the House of Delegates. The Senate is composed of 15 members all democrats, which will leave a federal majority of one vote in joint ballot, and consequently a federal Governor and United States States Senator will be elected.

We are authorised, say the New-York papers received by last mail, to state, that the Banks in New-York are making arrangements to enable them to resume specie payments.—The plan by which it is to be effected, has been adopted by the committee of the Banks, and when approved by the Board, will be transmitted to all the Banks in Philadelphia and Baltimore for their concurrence.

Colonel Lebadoyere, who was condemned to die by a council of war, and executed on the 20th August last, the papers state, was a young man of fine talents and accomplished manners. He was among the earliest sel[ec]ts of Louis on his first restoration, by whom he was given the command of a regiment. He was unfortunately one of the principal instigators of the return of Napoleon, and when he landed from Elba, joined him at the head of his regiment. He, from that time, became a great favourite of Bonaparte, and was immediately created a peer, and afterwards by a special decree promoted to the rank of Lieut. General. He was apprehended with the army of the Loire, and tried only for the simple act of traiterous desertion, consequently no circumstances were developed of the particular agency of the prisoner, or of any other person in effecting the restoration of the tyrant.

The cases of Drouet, Ney, Debille and others were, at the last accounts, under the consideration of the council.

U. S. SLOOP OF WAR ONTARIO.

According to the late advices from the Mediteranean, received at Boston, this vessel sailed from Algiers on the 7th of July, with despatches from com. Decatur to the secretary of the navy at Washington. If this account be correct, she has been out ninety days; and as nothing has been heard from her since she sailed, there is strong ground to apprehend that she was lost in some of the severe gales of August or September. The officers attached to the Ontario, according to a late navy list, are as follows: Jesse D. Elliott, commander; C. W. Skinner, F. W. Smith; and Nelson Webster, Lieutenants; Robert A Barton, Surgeon; S. B Whitington, Surgeon's Mate; G. K. Spence, Purser; A. Alexander, Wm Berry, J. A. Belcher, J. L. Cummings, Wm: Gardner, J. B. Montgomery, S. Moore, and Wm: Temple, Midshipmen; and Robert Tatem, Sailing Master.

A letter has been received at N. York from a naval officer belonging to the Mediteranean squadron, dated, "Alicant, August 20," which states, "that com. Decatur was about returning home in the frigate Guerriere; and that the whole of the U. S. squadron under the command of com. Bainbridge, would sail for home about the middle of September. The letter says nothing about a war with Tripoli.

ST. LOUIS, September 30.

We learn that the Commissioners appointed to treat with the Indians of the Missis[sippi] will close their labours without a prospect of effecting a negotiation with the Sacks of Rock river, and their allies the Winabagoes, Falsaroine, Kickapoos, &c &c. It is said, that a Fort will be immediately erected near the river Des moin preparatory to further operations in the spring, and that Fort Osage will be also prepared for the reception of a company of regular troops.

GEOGRAPHY—NEW SYSTEM.

The following very appropriate notice of Mr. Gleason's improved method of teaching the useful and elegant science of Geography, Astronomy, &c. is copied from the Providence Gazette.

Few sciences tend more to enlarge and liberalize the mind than that of Geography. To the young it opens a wide field for the ramblings of youthful fancy. On the wings of thought he visits the remotest Indies—now beholds the temples of Asiatic magnificence—now walks on the fertile banks of the Nile and admires those lofty Pyramids, which have for m[any] ages mock'd the efforts of all destroy-time. Again, crossing the Atlantic, views the vast chain of American kes, and hears the thunders of the falng floods of Niagara; or from the snow nt summit of the Andes, looks down on the Pacific, the turbid Atlantic, the eep-rolling tides of La Plata and Amaon, and the green vallies and fertile ains of South Ameriea. For age, too, eography has its charms. What was ce the delight of his youth, becomes a ch source of profitable conversation and ions reflection:

Who that views the earth with a learn-re, contemplates the whole as a vast ine, revolving round the sun, and forge but one wheel in the vast machine-f the universe, does not feel forcibly pressed with the power, the wisdom, goodness of the mighty Architect framed; supports and governs the ole! The method of teaching this inluable science, lately introduced into is town, by the gentleman (Mr. GLEA-) who is now delivering a course of ctures, meets with our cordial approtion. His plan is liberal, full of imas, that make lasting impressions on the mory, and at once introduces the pu-to the grand out lines of Geography.
affords an easy means of recruiting the nd with a stock of ideas, which are acired with pleasure and remembered
th profit. We are happy to know, at it meets with a patronage that does nor to the citizens.

A Friend to Science.

Mr. EDITOR,

I HAVE seen in your paper a publication tending to injure the character of the Jour-men Shoemakers of Pittsburgh, and solicit-the assistance of the citizens, in suppress-g a combination, as it is termed.

But that no such thing exists, what I am bout to state, will shew.

I feel myself at liberty to work for who and r what wages I think proper, and every other an of my branch of business in this place, has the privilege of doing the same.

It has been generally understood, that in December last, the Journeymen turned out for igher wages, and a report was in circulation hat they received more for their work than ey actually did; the fact is, that higher wa-es was asked for, but remained the same they were two years ago, notwithstanding that board-g and other contingencies have arisen to dollar and fifty cents per week more than ey were at that time, and yet, the employers re not less than twenty-five per cent more for eir work than they had at the last raise of ices.

I now leave the public to judge whether the urneymen are entitled to greater wages or o.

PUBLIC.

In answer to Lieut. Chambliss's publication dated the 7th ult. I condescend to remark, that it is void of truth and support,—unless he, or the public value the inglorious certificate annexed to his false and calumnious defence. The gentlemen were deceived in Lieut. Chambliss and intend withdrawing their certificate—I take my leave of Lieut. Chambliss and the public refering them to the following certificates.

LOUIS LAVAL
Lieut. Rifle Regt.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 13, 1815.

We, the undersigned officers certify, that Lieut. Laval's publication of the 27th ult. respecting Lieut. Chambliss was correct and supported by facts—and Lieut. Chambliss we pronounce unworthy of credit or support,—and to our knowledge Lieut. Laval was aware that Lieut. Chambliss was at Pittsburgh at the time of his publication.

TO THE PUBLIC.

We, the under-signers, have seen in the paper of Saturday last, that Lieut. Chambliss has published a certificate with our names annexed to it, stating that his conduct has been generally that of an Officer and a Gentleman.

We therefore think proper to inform the public, that we were grossly deceived in Lieut. C's character, and beg it to form no favourable impressions of him from the certificate above alluded to, as his conduct laterly has proven him to be unworthy of that certificate; but unfortunately it did not develope itself until after he had left this place for Washington City.

Evening School Commenced.

GEORGE FORESTER,

RESPECTFULLY gives notice, that his SCHOOL is now open for the reception of a large number of Evening and a few more Day Scholars. He has just received from New-York, a set of new improved GLOBES.—No means are spared by him to promote the moral and intellectual improvement of his pupils; as well as to maintain the respectable character of his school. Terms moderate.

DOCTOR N. SMITH,

RESPECTFULLY informs the inhabitants of Pittsburgh and its vicinity, that he has been regularly licensed to practice PHYSICK AND SURGERY, and has for several years been engaged in the practice of its various branches, and therefore offers them his services, particularly in the capacity of a Dentist, hoping that his thorough knowledge of this branch of his profession, united with assiduity in business, and exertions to please, will entitle him to the patronage of the public. He cleans, repairs and extracts defective teeth, inserts new ones in such a manner and of such materials, the knowledge of which is peculiar to himself. He deems encomiums upon his performances superfluous, as he has set a number of artificial teeth since his residence in Pittsburgh; those that have scruples respecting the operation are requested to call and satisfy themselves.

The operation of inserting and cleaning is attended with little or no pain.

He also prepares the highly celebrated Carbonic Dentrifice, which will keep the teeth white and prevent the collection of Tartor.

Applications made at Dr. MORREL PARKER'S east side of Wood street, between Diamond Alley and Fifth streets.

October 14, 1815.

N.B. If the expectations are not answered, pecuniary satisfaction will not be required.

PENNSYLVANIA, ss.

IN THE NAME AND BY THE AUTHORITY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA.

SIMON SNYDER.

GOVERNOR OF THE SAID COMMONWEALTH.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, I have received authentic information, that some time last winter, a certain Negro Man, belonging to PHILIP WINEBIDDLE, late of the county of Allegheny, in this Commonwealth, was found dead; and that by a Coroner's Inquest held on the body of the said Negro, it appeared that the deceased came to his death by beating, and other cruel treatment inflicted on him by the said PHILIP WINEBIDDLE, his master, who has since fled from justice, and refuses to surrender himself, and abide his trial for the said offence: And whereas, the reputation of the government, the peace and security of its citizens, and the obligations of justice and humanity require, that the perpetrator of an offence so heinous, should be brought to speedy and condign punishment. I have therefore thought it proper to issue this Proclamation, hereby offering a Reward of TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS, to any person or persons, who shall apprehend and secure within any jail of this Commonwealth the said PHILIP WINEBIDDLE if brought to trial, and conviction of the said offence: And all Judges, Justices, Sheriffs, Coroners, Constables, and other Officers within this Commonwealth, according to the duties of their respective stations, are hereby required and enjoined to be attentive and vigilant in enquiring after, and bringing to justice the perpetrator of the crime aforesaid.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburgh, this twentieth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and of the Commonwealth the fortieth.

By the Governor,
N. B. BOILEAU, Sec'y.

LOTS FOR SALE IN THE TOWN OF GRANGER.

THE Subscribers having laid out the Town of Granger, will offer the Lots for Sale on the premises, at Public Vendue, on Thursday the second day of November next.

The Town of Granger is delightfully situated upon an elevated Tract of Land, on the shore of Lake Erie, and west bank of Rock River, in the County of Cuyahoga, and State of Ohio, surrounded by a rich and fertile country, which is rapidly settling. Its situation for healthiness, salubrity of air, purity and convenience of water, and fertility of soil, is not surpassed, if equalled, by any situation upon Lake Erie.

Rocky River is a stream of pure water, affording excellent mill seats, a fine fishery, an inexhaustible quantity of building stone. Stone Coal has been discovered in its banks. The bay is one of the safest and most commodious harbours on the Lake; the course and depth of the channel being never affected by the drifting of sand, a circumstance very uncommon with the mouths of the Lake Rivers. An Island in the River, near the mouth, around which the ice and drift wood are forced by a bend of the River, forms an excellent harbour for shipping secure from storms and floods. The facility of erecting wharfs at a trifling expence, will considerably add to the many advantages of Granger possesses.

The prospect of opening a communication to the navigable waters of Muskingum and Sciota, being 46 miles north of Wooster, 55 miles north-westerly of Canton, 65 miles north-easterly of Mansfield, and 35 miles from the navigable waters of the Ohio; the immediate prospect of good roads in those directions, must, with a few years, bring the commerce of the southern parts of Ohio and the adjacent States to Lake Erie.

The situation of the Town of Granger, in point of commercial advantages, will give it a decided preference, and bids fair to be a place of considerable importance, worth the attention of the enterprising Merchant, Manufacturer, and Mechanic.

Liberal encouragement will be given to those who make early improvements in the Town.

Terms of Sale, a small portion in hand, and a liberal credit for the residue.

JOHN BEVER,
GIDEON GRANGER,
JOSEPH H. LARWILL,
CALVIN PEASE.

DOCTOR CHISHOLM'S
Anti-Bilious Pills,
Of a quality superior to any thing of the kind ever offered as a GENERAL MEDICINE, in this Country.

NOW prepared from a recipe of the celebrated Dr. Chisholm, who, from a long residence in the West-India Islands, has been enabled to favor the world with the most complete history, and most approved methods of curing all the BILIOUS DISEASES of those warm climates.

This extraordinary Medicine, which now for the first time is finding its way into general practice, has properties in the highest degree superior to the mercurial nostrums so frequently recommended by the name of Anti-Bilious Pills. The extraordinary powers of this medicine as a solvent and evacuent of Bile, is without example; never producing debility or injuring the health, in the smallest degree, of the most delicate child or weakly female:

The BILIOUS HEAD-ACHE, so much complained of in this country, and in the neighbourhood of rivers, is often removed by a single dose, which, to a strong man, is only five pills, and to a weakly woman, three. The same dose will generally remove the most excruciating pains of the cholic, like a charm, by abusing the bile to pass downwards in the course of an hour or two.

Two or three Pills taken an hour before dinner, and repeated every third day, will effectually remove those diseases arising from flatulency and indigestion, and by persevering in the use of them for a considerable time, the appetite will be improved, and strength and vigor will return.

Two Pills taken at bed time, with a cup of penny-royal tea, and repeated every second night, will effectually remove Rheumatic pains wherever seated.

A single Pill, taken every fourth hour with a cup of flaxseed tea, will cure Pleurisy, promote expectoration, and relieve coughs and colds.

In CONSUMPTIVE CASES and DISEASES OF THE LIVER, no medicine ever yet discovered, has been known to perform such cures. Two Pills taken every third morning, will be found sufficient, unless costiveness prevails; in which case the dose may be increased according to the strength or constitution.

The Dysentery, Croup, and Summer Complaint on children, are soon relieved by a few doses. A single Pill to a child of 6 years old, and the dose increased according to their strength and age.

In Asthmatic or Phthisical cases, where the laborious breathing and great oppression, with faintings, are fast sinking the patient to the brink of the grave, a few Pills, taking one every hour, with fennel or pepper-mint tea, will often enable the patient to walk about in a few hours.

The above valuable Medicine is Sold ONLY in Pittsburgh, by
J. P. & J. W. SKELTON,
at their Wholesale and Retail Apothecary and Drug Store.

DOCTOR HANDY'S
WORM
DESTROYING LOZENGES,
A safe and efficacious medicine for destroying and bringing away WORMS.

MAY be used with safety by children of any age, or as common physic by the most delicate constitution, in any climate, without restraint of diet, or the smallest danger from cold. It may be given with advantage after the small-pox or measles; or as a family medicine, in any case where physic is necessary.—The most frequent seat of worms in the human body, is the intestinal tube; but occasionally they have been found in almost every other part of the body.

Some very extraordinary cases of Worms, of an unusual form and appearance, being brought away by these Lozenges, have been made public in England, where the rapid sale of the medicine has exceeded any thing of the kind ever known before; and has also proved, to a demonstration, its approved superiority, as an athelminthick, to the numerous puffed-up, useless nostrums, which are daily advertised in the newspapers.

A single dose of this valuable medicine has often been known to remove half a pot full of the Teres or Round Worms.

A few doses are generally sufficient to remove the Ascarides, a small white worm, the seat of which is either the stomach or rectum.

Even the Tape Worm, at all times the most difficult to destroy, may, by persevering in the frequent use of this medicine, be totally removed in the course of a few weeks.

To select cases, with the names of people who are not known here, and living at a great distance, would be useless, and take up too much of the readers time. We shall therefore only observe, for the benefit of those who are acquainted with the symptoms of worms, that they are known or suspected to exist by a pain in the stomach, attended with a sudden depression of spirits before eating; at other times the belly is hard, painful and distended with wind—costiveness, head ache, and trembling of the limbs, with a sense of something rising in the throat—pale complexion and emaciated body, with weakness and irregular appetite—convulsive, epileptic or falling fits—pains in the back and side, and frequent itching of the nose, and sometimes of the anus. The above and a long train of afflicting diseases may all be occasioned by worms, which are much oftener the cause of death than is commonly believed.

The above Valuable MEDICINE, is sold, ONLY, by
J. P. & J. W. Skelton,
At their WHOLESALE & RETAIL Drug Store, at the corner of Wood and Third Streets, PITTSBURGH.
